

Navgan Shikshan Sanstha Rajuri (N)

MRS. KESHARBAI SONAJIRAO KSHIRSAGAR ALIAS KAKU ARTS,
SCIENCE AND COMMERCE COLLEGE, BEED -431122

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Programme Outcomes (POs)

1.	Disciplinary Knowledge: Demonstrate knowledge of fundamental concepts, theories, and approaches in Political Science.
2.	Political Analysis: Analyze political institutions, systems, processes, and contemporary political developments.
3.	Critical Thinking: Develop critical, logical, and independent thinking on political issues and perspectives.
4.	Constitutional Awareness: Understand the Indian Constitution, democratic institutions, rights, duties, and governance.
5.	Democratic Citizenship: Develop democratic values, civic responsibilities, and political participation.
6.	Comparative Understanding: Compare and evaluate different political systems, governments, and institutions
7.	Research Skills: Apply basic research methods, data collection, and analytical skills in Political Science.
8.	Problem Solving: Identify political and socio-economic problems and suggest practical solutions.
9.	Leadership and Participation: Develop leadership, teamwork, decision-making, and democratic participation.
10.	Ethical Reasoning: Apply ethical values to political decisions, governance, and contemporary issues.

MRS. KESHARBAI SONAJIRAO KSHIRSAGAR ALIAS KAKU ARTS, SCIENCE
AND COMMERCE COLLEGE, BEED -431122

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)

1.	Political Concepts: Explain fundamental concepts and theories of
2.	Political Theory: Analyze classical, modern, and contemporary political theories.
3.	Political Theory: Analyze classical, modern, and contemporary political theories.
4.	Political Thinkers: Understand the contributions of major Indian and Western political thinkers.
5.	Indian Political System: Understand the structure and functioning of the Indian political system.
6.	Indian Constitution: Explain the features, values, rights, duties, and institutions of the Indian Constitution.
7.	Indian Government and Politics: Analyze Indian government, Parliament, judiciary, political parties, and elections.
8.	Maharashtra Politics: Analyze the political, social, and economic development of Maharashtra.
9.	Local Governance: Understand Panchayati Raj, urban local bodies, and grassroots democracy.
10.	Human Rights: Understand human rights, social justice, and constitutional safeguards.

Navgan Shikshan Sanstha Rajuri (N)

MRS. KESHARBAI SONAJIRAO KSHIRSAGAR ALIAS KAKU ARTS,
SCIENCE AND COMMERCE COLLEGE, BEED -431122

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

COURSE OUTCOME [CO's]

BA . I

SR. NO.	PAPER CODE	PAPER NAME	COURSE OUTCOME [CO'S]
Semester-I
1.	DSC- Pol-01	Introduction to Political Science	1. Theoretical aspects of Political Science, and will learn about its basic concepts state and 2. government 3. The origin, structure and functioning of state and government. 4. Understand the dynamics of live politics in the context of political theory 5. Basic concepts – liberty, equality, and justice 6. Distinctions and relevance of these concepts.
2.	GE/OE 1	Basics of State and Government	1. Understand origin, constituents, purpose, structure and functioning of the state and Government. 2. Analyze the better form of government around the world. 3. To understand the difference between state and government
3.	SEC-I	Human Rights	1. Explain the basic concept of Human Rights and its various formulations. 2. Have sufficient knowledge and skills for analyzing, interpreting, and applying the Human Rights Standards and sensitize them to the issues. 3. Develop ability to critically analyze Human Rights violations around them and become a Volunteer.

4.	IKS- Indian Knowledge System	Hyderabad Freedom Struggle Marathwada Region	1. To give basic Knowledge about Hyderabad Freedom struggle among the student. 2. To enable to locate the difference between Indian freedom struggle and Hyderabad liberation movement. 3. To make aware the student about heritage places of Marathwada Mukti Sangram. 4. To make aware the student about heritage places of Marathwada Mukti Sangram. 5. To groom the student in knowing the importance of regional history of Marathwada.
----	-------------------------------------	---	--

SR. NO.	PAPER CODE	PAPER NAME	COURSE OUTCOME [CO'S]
----------------	-------------------	-------------------	------------------------------

Semester-II

1.	DSC- Pol-2	Indian Constitution and Government	1. Aware of the making, sources and features of the Indian constitution. 2. Known about structure and functioning of Indian Government 3. Acquainted of dynamics in Indian politics 4. Able to understand and to analyze party politics, federal system, elections and democratic values.
5.	GE/OE 2	Introduction to Foreign Policy	1. To study the framing, means and goals of foreign policy. 2. To understand the objectives and principles of India's foreign policy.
	VSC - 1	Election Management	1. Acquire skills of election management. 2. Assist political parties or candidates to manage its electorate. 3. Provide Professional solutions to run election campaign to political party or any independent candidate.

BA.II

SR. NO.	PAPER CODE	PAPER NAME	COURSE OUTCOME [CO'S]
Semester-III
1.	Major DSC-7	Introduction Political theory	1. Understand the meaning, nature, and scope of political theory. 2. Distinguish between political theory and political philosophy and comprehend the function of theory. 3. Recognize the relevance of discourse within political theory. 4. Analyze the underlying assumptions and perspectives of both classical and contemporary political theories. 5. Understand the evolution of arguments related to changing patterns in political behavior, ideas, and institutions. 6. Draw logical inferences about political issues using both historical and contemporary knowledge
2.	Major DSC-8	Theories and concept of International Relation	1. Understand the meaning, nature, and scope of international relations. 2. Develop analytical perspectives to study international relations using various theoretical frameworks. 3. Reflect on the political dynamics underlying regional and global institutions. 4. Critically analyze contemporary developments in international relations and global politics.
3.	Minor -1	Indian parliamentary system	1. Understand the constitutional framework, key features, and nature of the Indian Parliamentary system. 2. Grasp the functioning of the Indian Parliament. 3. Comprehend the legislative process and parliamentary practices.

			4. Gain insight into the functioning of major parliamentary committees.
4.	Minor -2	Introduction to International politics	1. Understand the meaning and scope of international politics and evaluate global events through multiple perspectives. 2. Identify and analyze the roles and influence of state and non-state actors in the international system. 3. Examine the determinants of world order and dynamics of power politics. 4. Understand the role of the United Nations in maintaining global peace. 5. Analyze critical contemporary issues in international politics.
5.	VSC-2	Political communication	1. Understand the core concepts, theories, and practices of political communication. 2. Analyze the roles of various actors and institutions involved in the political communication process. 3. 3Develop critical thinking skills to evaluate political messages and media narratives. 4. Gain insights into the impact of political communication on public opinion, electoral outcomes, and political culture. 5. Enhance communication skills for effective political engagement and participation.
6.	GE/OE	Indian nationalism	1. Understand the emergence, development, and nature of Indian nationalism. 2. Engage with and compare various scholarly perspectives on Indian nationalism. 3. Acquire the knowledge and analytical skills needed to assess the key components and challenges facing Indian nationalism. 4. Recognize and appreciate the contributions of national leaders and freedom fighters.

SR. NO.	PAPER CODE	PAPER NAME	COURSE OUTCOME [CO'S]
Semester-IV
1.	MAJOR DSC- 9	Federal system of India	1. Understand the nature and structure of the Indian federal system. 2. Analyze the key determinants shaping Indian federalism. 3. Explain constitutional provisions, issues, and the dynamics of Centre-State relations. 4. Identify administrative reforms aimed at enhancing the efficiency of the Indian federation. 5. Examine major political developments related to Centre-State relations.
2.	MAJOR DSC- 10	Government and politics of Maharashtra	1. Understand the socio-economic conditions, cultural background, and reorganization of Maharashtra. 2. Comprehend the structure and functioning of the Government of Maharashtra. 3. Analyse the political dynamics of the state and evaluate the role of regional parties, social movements, and caste in shaping Maharashtra's politics 4. Examine key socio-economic movements and their impact on state politics in Maharashtra..
3.	MINOR-3	Grassroots Democracy in India.	1. Understand the structure and functioning of Panchayati Raj institutions and urban local bodies. 2. Comprehend the constitutional status of local governance under the 73rd and 74th Amendments. 3. Analyze the political participation of women and marginalized communities in grassroots democracy. 4. Appreciate the significance of democratic decentralization and participatory decision-making 5. Gain technical knowledge of rural and urban political processes.
4.	MINOR-4	Study of Political Ideas.	1. Discuss and analyze various trends in political thought. 2. Compare and contrast major political ideologies, both historical and contemporary. 3. Identify the core values and assumptions underlying key ideologies. 4. Understand the socioeconomic and techno-political conditions that gave rise to ideologies such as Liberalism, Socialism, Marxism, Anarchism, Fascism, and Authoritarianism. 5. Critically examine the socio-political impacts of these ideologies.

5.	SEC-2	Political ethics and value	1. Students will be able to explain the basic concepts and theories of ethics and politics. 2. Students will be able to analyse the relationship between ethical values and political practices. 3. Students will be able to critically examine ethical issues and challenges arising in contemporary political society. 4. Students will be able to apply ethical reasoning to understand and evaluate changing political situations and political decision-making
6.	GE/OE-4	Introduction to Democracy	1. Understand the core principles and ideas underlying democracy. 2. Distinguish between social, political, and economic dimensions of democratic governance. 3. Appreciate the significance of the Indian Constitution in safeguarding democratic values. 4. Critically examine political practices carried out in the name of democracy. 5. Recognize the meaning and importance of active, informed participation in democratic processes as responsible citizens.
7.	Field Project	Field Project in Political Science	1. Understand the integration of theoretical knowledge with real-world political practice. 2. Analyze political data and propose practical solutions to observed issues. 3. Gain technical and professional skills such as effective communication, decision-making. And proficiency in research tools and techniques. 4. Conduct both qualitative and quantitative research independently. 5. Demonstrate awareness of key socio-economic and political issues at the grassroots level.

BA. III

SR. NO.	PAPER CODE	PAPER NAME	COURSE OUTCOME [CO'S]
Semester-V
8.	MAJOR DSC- 11	Study of Indian political thinker	1. Understand the importance of historical and epistemic tradition of Indian Political Thought. 2. Engage with some of the perennial questions and their answers provided by Indian political thinkers. 3. Develop confidence in accessing the classic texts in Indian philosophical tradition. Analyze how the ideas of Indian political thinkers are relevant to contemporary political issues, governance, and societal challenges. Have a profound understanding of Indian political philosophy, encouraging critical thinking and the application of ancient wisdom to contemporary political challenges.

5.	MAJOR DSC- 12	Major political Ideologies	- Students will be able to understand different political arguments in wider ideological context and they will be more sophisticated in dealing with the cultural and social roots of political actions, discourses, and rhetoric. - Student will be able to critical thinking and the application of these learning to analyze contemporary political phenomena. - Student will have a profound understanding of major political ideologies and the role of these ideologies in contemporary politics.
4.	DSE-1	Comparative government and politics.	- Understand Meaning, nature, scope and significance of Comparative politics and Government. - Excel in various approaches to the study of Comparative politics. - Explain the key concepts, theories, and methods used in comparative politics. - Identify and compare different political systems, regimes, and institutions around the world. - Evaluate the effectiveness of various forms of government (democracies, authoritarian regimes, hybrids). - Have knowledge about institutions, structure and functioning of the US, UK and PRC Government - Interpret current global political events using comparative frameworks.
8.	DSE-2	India in the world Order	- Demonstrate knowledge of India's historical and current foreign policy frameworks. - Critically analyze India's interactions with major world powers and neighboring countries. - Evaluate India's role in international organizations such as the United Nations, BRICS, and G20 etc. - Understand the geopolitical, economic, and security dynamics shaping India's global stance. - Apply theoretical concepts to real-world case studies involving India's foreign relations..
6.	MINOR-5	Contemporary foreign policy of India	- Explain the evolution of India's foreign policy since independence, with an emphasis on post-1991 developments. - Analyze major policy doctrines and strategic objectives shaping India's external relations.

			3. Assess India's bilateral and multilateral engagements with countries and organizations like the US.China, Russia, SAARC, ASEAN,and the UN. 4. Evaluate India's responses to global challenges such as terrorism, climate change, and economic globalization. 5. Critically discuss the impact of domestic politics on foreign policy decisions. 6. Apply theoretical frameworks to understand and interpret India's foreign policy behavior in current international affairs. 7. Participate effectively in debates, negotiations, and international relations simulations.
7.	MINOR-6	Political economy of India	1. Gain comprehensive knowledge of India's economic history and political economy. 2. Understand the interplay between political decisions and economic outcomes. 3. Analyze the impact of government policies on different sectors of the Indian economy. 4. Evaluate the challenges and opportunities posed by economic reforms. 5. Critically assess the role of state and non-state actors in economic development. 6. Develop skills to engage in informed debates on India's economic policies and future directions.
8.	VSC-3	Political survey and opinion Poll	1. Explain the key concepts and history of political survey research and opinion polling 2. Identify and compare different sampling techniques (probability and non-probability) used in surveys. 3. Design effective survey questionnaires that minimize bias and maximize data reliability. 4. Critically assess the validity, reliability, and limitations of survey and polling data. 5. Conduct basic data analysis and interpret the results of political opinion polls. 6. Understand and discuss the impact of public opinion on political processes and policymaking. 7. Evaluate the ethical considerations in survey research, including informed consent and privacy. 8. Communicate findings from surveys and opinion polls clearly and accurately to diverse audiences.
9.	VSC-4	Political analysis	1. Understand key concepts and theories in political analysis, such as power, authority, governance, and policy. 2. Apply analytical methods to assess political systems, behaviors, and institutions. 3. Critically evaluate political arguments, data, and sources.

			4. Conduct basic research using qualitative and quantitative tools relevant to political science. 5. Communicate findings clearly through written reports and oral presentations. 6. Develop informed perspectives on contemporary political issues, trends, and debates.
--	--	--	---

SR. NO.	PAPER CODE	PAPER NAME	COURSE OUTCOME [CO'S]
Semester-VI
9.	DSC- 13	An introduction to Western political thinker	1. Understand the importance of historical and epistemic tradition of Western Political Thought. 2. Engage with some of the perennial questions and their answers provided by Western political thinkers. 3. Develop confidence in accessing the classic texts in Western philosophical tradition. 4. Analyze how the ideas of Western political thinkers are relevant to contemporary political issues, governance, and societal challenges. 5. Have a profound understanding of western political philosophy, encouraging critical thinking and the application of ancient wisdom to contemporary political challenges.
10.	DSC- 14	Contemporary International politics	1. Understand the nature, scope and meaning of international politics. 2. Acquaint with the World order and major power system. 3. Understand state system with the lenses of various approaches. 4. Analyze state behavior, incidents, events, issues and challenges in contemporary international politics 5. Comprehend and critically engage in finding the causes of international conflicts and resolutions, alliances, war and pacts. 6. Understand key issues and debates within international affairs;
11.	DSC- 15 (IKS-2)	Ideas of State and Statecraft in Ancient India	1. Gain a comprehensive understanding of how ancient Indian thinkers and rulers shaped concepts of statecraft that influenced the Ancient India and subcontinent for centuries. 2. Identify the major theories of state, war and diplomacy, Dharma, Nyay, Niti, Danda etc. in ancient India.

			3. Explain the structure and functions of ancient Indian political institutions (e.g., kingship, councils, bureaucracy). 4. Analyze important texts from ancient India 5. Compare ancient Indian concepts of state and governance with those of Greece, Rome, or China. 6. Assess the influence of ancient Indian statecraft on later Indian and global political ideas. 7. Apply concepts from ancient Indian statecraft to evaluate or reflect on modern issues of governance and public policy
12.	DSE-3	Public policy in India	1. Understand public policy, its scope as well as different approaches and theories of public 2. know typology and the policy cycle of public policy and Critically assess the role played by public policy in the development of the citizens 3. Learn about the roles of different institutions-like the legislature, executive, judiciary, and civil society in policy-making. 4. Gain knowledge about the structure, formulation, and implementation of public policy in India. 5. Analyze landmark policies in India (health, education, employment, and environment, economic reforms) to understand real-world challenges and solutions. 6. Acquire skills to conduct policy research, including data analysis, stakeholder mapping, and policy evaluation.
13.	DSE-4	Contemporary political theory	1. Understand key recent trends and shifts in political theory. 2. Critically assess different theoretical approaches to political concepts such as freedom, justice, and equality. 3. Analyze contemporary political issues through the lens of political theory. 4. Demonstrate awareness of the diversity and complexity of political thought in the modern era. 5. Critically engage with recent scholars and their contributions. 6. Develop skills in theoretical analysis and argumentation.
14.	MINOR -7	Political Development	1. Describe the concept, characteristics, and indicators of political development. 2. Explain major theories and approaches to political development.

			3. Analyze the role of political institutions, leadership, and participation in political development. 4. Critically evaluate contemporary issues and challenges affecting political development. 5. Examine the role of social, economic, and cultural factors in political development
15.	MINOR -8	Social political moment in India	1. Understand the meaning, Nature and characteristics of socio-political movements. 2. 2. Explore different theories and approaches towards socio-political movements. 3. 3. Analyze the causes, objectives, and impact of major movements in India. 4. Evaluate the role of social movements in promoting democracy and social justice. 5. Examine contemporary issues and challenges faced by socio-political movements.